

Short Bio:

Greg Murray & The Seven Wonders fuses the twang of Americana, with latino, with 'death country', with brash and anthemic choruses, soaring into the sky, with the help of rousing brass, played at one hundred miles per hour. There is Springsteen, Arcade Fire, The Waterboys, Calexico, Van Morrison, all with a slight Irish tinge. They bring something different to the gunfight with a totally original brand of sincere, positive, heart-warming, life-affirming, heart-felt, hugely majestic, blend of music - making an incredible carnival of a live show.

Long Bio:

This is original music played by a big gang of friends who want you to listen, laugh and dance. Imagine an Irish man, sprinkled with the tears of angels, and then surround him with a cloud of musicians and singers and let them take you on a roller-coaster ride, from beautiful heart-torn ballads, to sublime ethereal choral anthemic choruses with full blast uplifting brass-infused hooks with folk-Americana influences, that generates the most frantic elevating positive energy. The entirely Northern Irish James Gregory Murray writes the lyrics and melodies, plays the guitar and sings. He has recruited a great bunch of friends with a wonderful array of talent to join him put his songs onto the world's musical map. This huge band, led by the charismatic Irishman, play a wide variety of song styles; including brazen barn dances, beautiful ballads, 'death country', dramatic Americana, folksy 'tex-mex' tinged graceful-indie-rock, reggae-folk with added colour from an unbelievably rousing brass section and accordion player! Add the fact that virtually every member of the band sings and it's no surprise that their shows create a fantastic live atmosphere.

Testimonials:

"A great afternoon at Lichfield Festival and was blown away by Greg Murray & The Seven Wonders. Instant catchy tunes from a charismatic Irish vocalist. It's hard to pigeon hole this hybrid country folk but their energy is infectious."

"Absolute joy watching these guys at Lymelight Festival yesterday! Must see them again."

"Real music played by real people drawn straight from the heart!"

"What a fantastic band and charismatic lead singer - brilliant !"

Terry Hughes - 365 Radio/Radio Caroline: "The catchiest song of 2021, by far Surely it will be one of the hits of the summer!"

"Original songs and awesome line up. They will get you up on your feet dancing! Just incredible positive original music."

"Top set at Lichfield Fuse Festival 2018. Instant catchy tunes and a front man in Greg that draws you into their music with his wit and charismatic Irish charm and classy vocals to boot. Hope to see you live again soon. Where can I get your music? — feeling entertained."

"James Gregory Murray you and the band got loads of people up dancing and left an amazingly positive vibe as per usual! Amazing! Xx"

"What can I say, brilliant set from Greg Murray & The Seven Wonders, although there were definitely more than 7 tonight (more like 14 Wonders!), cracker, loved every minute of it as did the rest of the audience 😊 😊 James Gregory Murray top night matey, hope you have cooled off now."

"Thank you Greg...You and the band are absolutely brilliant. Wasn't feeling myself but after your first chord I was hooked with your positivity and life affirming uplifting music - such spirit. I wish someone could bottle it."

"It was a pleasure having you with us Greg Murray & The Seven Wonders! Incredible set and fantastic getting the youngsters and crowd up on stage with you!"

"Just seen this band for the first time...Amazing, I loved them and can't wait to see them again. Such a positive upbeat message of optimism. X"

"GM7W may have nearly caused a heart attack for the festival organisers, thanks to their ever-growing line-up of musicians, and their truly magical and "wonder"-ful feast to the eyes – I pitied the band coming on after them!!"

"Just watched Greg Murray & the sensational Seven - woah what a band, trumpet, trombone, sax, keyboards, bass n lead guitars, drums n vocals, the place was rocking, audience participation was compulsory, felt sorry for the next band on as they're a hard act to follow."

"I watched this band last year at the Acoustic Festival of Great Britain and was so pleased to hear that they were appearing again this year. I've just watched them play their set tonight and it was even better than last year!"

"Brilliant band, great songs and they get the very best out of the audience - everyone up dancing and singing! Well worth checking them out if you love great music or, if you are a music promoter, getting them to play a venue or festival!"

"Greg is an amazing singer and the whole band are crazy talented with a great energy. Lovely upbeat tunes and loads of fun :) thanks for a great night in the Salford Arms."

"If you need cheering up, this should do it!"

Terry Hughes - Radio Caroline/365 Radio: One of my listeners Susi messaged me about your song "It was incredibly catchy, I loved it, and I was humming it in my head"
